

23 - 2 Leading-Tone Seventh Chords: Long Exercise

Complete the upper three voices (in chorale style)

A musical staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (Bb), and a common time signature (C). The staff is divided into five measures by vertical bar lines.

A large left-facing curly brace on the left side, with five vertical lines extending from it to the right, corresponding to the five measures of the staff above.

A large left-facing curly brace on the left side, with five vertical lines extending from it to the right, corresponding to the five measures of the staff above. The fifth vertical line is thicker than the others.